

I think that people should be allowed maximum protection from anoying calls.
This means that a federal law should not limit the protection already provided by state laws. Thank you